

Heroes

Our big question is: What makes a hero?

Our Chatterbox words are:

adventure	A journey or activity that is dangerous or exciting.
brave	To be ready to face danger.
community	A particular area where a group of people live.
determined	To be free from doubt about doing something.
escape	To get free or to get away.
expectations	To know what I should be doing and when.
friend	A person who you know and like and who likes you.
mission	To complete an important task.
rescue	To help someone or something out of a dangerous situation.
school	A place for teaching and learning.
sidekick	A person's assistant or close associate.
superhero	A character, usually having supernatural or superpowers, who is dedicated to fighting the evil of the universe.
villain	A bad person who can be unkind to other people or breaks the law.

Big ideas that we are going to explore

Superhero- We would like to find out what superheroes there are, are they fictional and real? Do we know any? Do any help us in our daily lives? What makes you a superhero? What superheroes are in our past and present?

Ourselves- We would like to explore what our superpowers are? How can we help ourselves? How can we help others? What makes us special and unique? How are we different?

Safety- What real-life superheroes do we know who help people? We want to find out how superheroes stay safe. How do they rescue others safely? How can we stay safe at home and at school?

Important people who have changed the world- We would like to find out about people who have helped us in a significant way? We would like to find out about Florence Nightingale and what she did. How did Gertrude Ederle help us? What did Rosa Parks do to help us?

These are the books that we are going to be reading.
