Key Vocabulary
Lost and Found Office	A place to take things you have found or go to collect things you have lost. Usually at railway stations.
Disappointment	To feel sad that something hasn't turned out the way you hoped.
South Pole	The furthest southern point on Earth, on the continent of Antarctica.
Harbour	A sheltered area where can leave and arrive.
delighted	Feeling great pleasure and happiness.
lonely	To feel sad because you are on your own.

Rationale:

- The main themes of this book support our Intent statement in the following ways:
- A focus on providing a welcome for all.
- Vocabulary and images develop emotional literacy, empathy with those who are different to us, understanding of own feelings and those of others, and how we relate to others.
- Curiosity about the world around us as well as the needs and feelings of others.
